Spring Pictures- Using a full piece of blue paper and a portion of brown (for sky and dirt) glue sunflower seeds under the brown “ground” and flowers pieces above ground. Finish picture with markers or crayons. See example in resources.

Dirt box with peanuts- Participants play in the dirt, planting peanuts “seeds” in the box. Add artificial flowers with stems above for grown flowers.

Bird’s nests- Show pictures of birds and nests found in magazines or internet. Talk about how birds use bushes and trees to hold their nests. Using clay roll long pieces of clay to coil or pinch to make bird nests. If available place artificial small birds in nest.

Storytelling • Parable of the Mustard Seed • Feb. Yr. 3

Place the Bible and Jesus doll by the Storyteller.

Storyteller sits in front of mustard seed bush with a picture of full grown bush and the container with a mustard seed.

Our story today is from the Bible, (show the Bible) our book that tells the stories of God and God's people, of Jesus (show Jesus doll), God's son, and of how much God loves us (place hands over heart).

Our story comes from the part of our Bible that tells about Jesus's life. It is called the New Testament. This story was written down by a friend, a disciple of Jesus, named Matthew. Jesus taught the people by using stories and things that they knew about at the time; like we know about airplanes and cars. Would the people of God in Jesus' time have known about airplanes and cars? (wait for answers) Jesus used familiar things like animals, plants and treasures to teach the people how God wanted them to live, what following God might look like, what the Kingdom of God looked like and much more.

Matthew shares with us a time when Jesus was telling the story of what the Kingdom of God is like. He said the Kingdom of God is like a very small mustard seed. Now the people knew that the mustard seed was the smallest of seeds. See how small a mustard seed is. (pass around a mustard seed in a container)

Jesus said that God's world is like a mustard seed that begins so small but when it grows it becomes a huge mustard bush. (refer to the bush from gathering and the picture) where birds and other animals find rest, homes, food, and protection. It's like that for many of us. When we first begin to learn about God our understanding is very small. The more we talk to him, read about him, and listen to his teachings the more we understand God, Jesus, and our friendship and love grow.

Amen!

After an appropriate pause, the Storyteller goes to explain the activities of the day.
